PURIM is COMING

Hear Ye, Hear Ye. Come to Shushan on Persimmon Tree Lane, Sunday, March 3 for a Purim Celebration like no other. We begin at 4PM with the Carnival! Games! Prizes! Food and Friends! Support Adat Shalom Youth programming and bring your friends and neighbors to celebrate!

Dinner will be available beginning at 5:30 PM and at 6:15, it's time for the COSTUME PARADE right into the sanctuary! We'll begin with a Bit O'Megillah (in English) for our youngest celebrants, followed by the guaranteed-to-entertain Purim Shpiel. This annual event is written, directed, performed by our members - young and older. It's a not-to-miss day at Adat Shalom.

Come back on Monday at 7PM, costumes encouraged, for the gantze (whole) Megillah! We've got a great line up of lay readers (some for the first time!) so come take part in all of the mitzvot associated with Purim. Adat Shalom's own version of Social Hall Pong follows the Megillah Reading.
